Thanks be to God!

Father Michael Vinson and the congregation of Saint Benedict's Anglican Church (Rockwall) conducted their first service in their newly acquired property by celebrating The Feast of the Transfiguration. Located on seven acres overlooking Lake Ray Hubbard, the property formerly belonged to U.S Representative Ralph Hall. The story of how Saint Benedict's came to own the property is a witness to the miraculous nature of God.

Welcome Our Newest Clergy

The Rev'd Garrin W. Dickinson

Fr. Garrin was born in Michigan and grew up in the middle of Atlanta, Georgia, and in rural Connecticut. That combination was confusing enough that somehow he found himself in an Army recruiter's office, after which he served two and a half years as a tank driver, culminating in a combat tour during the first Gulf War.

Having gotten that out of his system and having done his patriotic duty, he went to the University of Pittsburgh for a B.A. in English Literature. Since his parents and siblings moved to the Pittsburgh area also, it became home. After college, Garrin did a year of training for missions work with Youth With a Mission (YWaM). That included a month in Jordan and a month leading an outreach team at the 1996 Summer Olympics. In the course of that training, it became clear that God was calling him to the priesthood, so he earned a Master of Divinity degree at Trinity School for Ministry in Ambridge, PA.

Fr. Garrin was ordained a priest in 2002 for the Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh. He spent three years as Curate at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Rosemont, PA. For two of those years, while still serving in Pennsylvania, he was canonically resident in the Diocese of Mt. Kenya South.

He then transferred back to the Episcopal Church and served as Rector of Holy Nativity Church in Plano, TX, for fifteen years.

Along the way, Fr. Garrin met and married the luminously beautiful Jenny Higgins, and they had three brilliant daughters: Lucy, Eleanor, and Mary. The adventure of educating these brilliant children led the Dickinsons on a quest that ended in the wholesale adoption of Classical Christian Education. Fr. Garrin has fulfilled several different roles in Christian schools, including parent, board member, board chairman, homeschool principal, teacher (both at home and school), substitute, and husband of an administrator. Having been involved in independent schools, he is now very excited to join the faculty of a parish school.

Fr. Garrin is a devotee (putting it mildly) of the writings of C. S. Lewis and J. R. R. Tolkien. He makes his own beer, wine, yogurt, saurkraut, and soap. He keeps bees and has a farm fantasy. Most importantly, he thinks that Jesus and his Church should be at the center of everyone's life.

Getting Prepared

Kathy Smith, Saint Timothy School's Director of Academic Kindergarten and the Kindergarten teacher, spends time during a Kindergarten Readiness Camp with some of her class for the fall. Saint Timothy School students begin classes on August 30.

Christ the King Mission, Marietta, Georgia
 Father Tony Melton and the congregation of Christ the King are awaiting completion of their renovated worship space. They currently rent the church building from a local private school that acquired the property from Fair Oaks United Methodist Church. Until the renovations are complete, they worship in an outside area on the property.

Despise Doubt — Hermas

Those who are perfect in faith ask God for everything, trusting in the Lord. They obtain because they ask without doubting and without being double-minded. For double-minded people, even if they repent, will have difficulty being saved. Cleanse your hearts from doubt, therefore, and put on faith because it is strong. Trust God that you will obtain from Him everything that you ask. If at any time after you have asked of the Lord, you are slower in obtaining your request than you expected, don't doubt.... Therefore, do not stop making the request your soul and you will obtain it. But if you become weary and waiver in your request, blame yourself and not Him who doesn't give it to you. Consider the doubting mind. It is wicked and sinful and turns many away entirely from the faith even though they are very strong. For this doubting is the daughter of the devil, and acts extremely wickedly to the servants of God. Despise doubting, then, and gain mastery over it in everything. Clothe yourself with faith, which is strong and powerful. For faith promises all things and perfects all things, but doubt, having no thorough faith in itself, fails in every work which it undertakes.
