Dear Parishioners and Friends,

What a peaceful and blessed year we have enjoyed! "They shall be satisfied with the plenteousness of thy house; and thou shalt give them drink of thy pleasures, as out of the river" (Psalm 36:8). Of primary motivation for the Christian sacrifice of tithes and offerings in God's House must certainly be His perpetual generosity in creation, and above all, in redemption, sending His beloved Son Jesus the Christ for man's salvation. Among other sensible reasons to give to the Lord are simply the well-ordered life, the proper use of goods, the virtue of generosity, the practical needs of sanctified space and time, the blessing God promises to those who put Him first, and the goodness that He accomplishes with our tithes and offerings.

Following this letter is a brief and potent teaching from The Rev'd Canon Peter M. Norman, written for The Reformed Episcopal Church in July, 2001—which I encourage you to read thoughtfully and prayerfully. You may wish to memorize the seven principles and adopt them personally as a spiritual discipline.

Yet, two further reasons occupy my mind. The first is that of delight: that is, the happiness of heaven. Nothing is more delightful to the human soul than being at home in the family of God, and nourished in His House. The second is vision: the godly imagination within The Chapel. Due to parish generosity, the ministries of music, assisting clergy, parish beautification, missions, and long-term property care can now be funded through the operating budget. Further, the strong mutual financial and program interchange with the parish school is deepening engagement with our surrounding Nones, lapsed, and unchurched culture.

An excerpt from the article:

Today, Christian people hold untold quantities of wealth never before imagined. The average Christian teenager in America often has more disposable cash income than fifty percent of the world's population. But, while Christian wealth has increased in America, most Christian leaders ignore teaching the biblical imperatives of giving. This seriously impacts our ability to spread the gospel to hurting, confused and broken people. A materialistic undertow threatens the spiritual vitality and financial stability of our mission and ministry. A recent study discovered that although seventeen percent of Christians say they tithe, only three percent actually give ten percent of their income to the church. We need to teach biblical tithing, and the best way to accomplish this may be to discuss seven principles of Christian giving.

What should you do about tithing? If you have not already done so, make a spiritual decision today to set aside ten percent of your income and assets for God's work. Give faithfully, generously, and cheerfully to the Lord's work through the Reformed Episcopal Church. Others have said: "A checkbook is a theological document; it tells who and what you worship" (Billy Graham), and "I have held many things in my hands and have lost them all. But whatever I have placed in God's hands, that I still possess" (Martin Luther).

At the recent Chapel Work Day (right) progress was made to prepare the ceiling for paint in the Memorial Garden walkway by Sam Cole and Tavi Niño. The alley was also cleaned and trimmed.

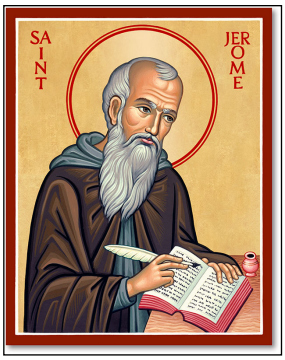
Our Response – Jerome



The Son of God was made the Son of Man for our salvation. Nine months he waited for His birth in the womb…. He who encloses the world in His fist was contained in the narrow walls of a manger. And I'm not even talking about the thirty years when He lived in obscurity, satisfied with His parent's poverty. When He was whipped, He remained calm. When He was crucified, He prayed for His crucifiers. "What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits towards me? I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." The only fitting response we can make toward Him is to give blood for blood. Because we are redeemed by the blood of Christ, we should gladly desire to lay down our lives for our Redeemer. What saints have ever won their crowns without competing first? For righteous Abel was murdered, and Abraham was in danger of losing his wife.I don't need to elaborate. Find out others for yourself. You will find that all holy people have suffered persecution…. Which is best—to fight for a short time, to carry stakes for the stockade, or to bear arms, and to faint under heavy battles in order to rejoice as victors forever, or to become slaves forever because we can't endure for a single hour?
